C. T. BLAND THE ORATOR

Portsmouth Legislator to Address Organized Labor in This City September 5th.

MR. BRADLEY NOW CHAIRMAN

Succeeds Mr. Rudd, Who Resigned-The General Labor. Day Committee.

The Hon Charles T. Bland, of Portsmouth, has accepted the invitation extended him by the Labor Day Committee to address the members of organized labor in this city on Labor Day,

Mr. Bland is a forcible speaker, and as omber of the House of Delegates has on a number of occasions championed the ure for his benefit had been introduced. His address on this occasion will no doubt be one of his best efforts, and on larity throughout the State, and especally in his home city, his presence here on this day will no doubt attract gentleman of national reputation a A gentleman or national reputation are no cater, and who is an organizer for one of the largest international unions in this country, has also been invited to make an address on this day, and it is more than probable that he will accept. To Name Aides.

Chief Marshal John M. Ryall is mak-ng up his list of aldes for the Labor Day parade and will announce the within the next two or three days. The march and positions of the one will also be assigned by Mr.

May Have Wrestling.

In addition to the many attractive features in the way of amusements for Labor Day the sub-committee on amusements will in all probability secure the services of Prot. Charles Reinecke and Benny Jones, of Newport News, to give exhibitions throughout the day of wrestling and physical culture. This would no doubt prove an interesting feature, as a great number of ladies will be present and could be afforded an opportunity to see a wrestling match.

Structural. Iron Workers.

On account of the erection of the many darge buildings here at this time it has necessitated the employment of a number of members of the Structural Irred Workers' Union, and consequently a local union has been instituted in this city. A local existed here some time ago, but as the craft is always on the move, the

At the special meeting of the Central Trades and Labor Council held Saturday night, Chairman Rudd, of the Labor Day Committee, resigned as a member, and Mr. J. H. Bradley, of the Carpenters' Union, was elected in his stead, and at the meeting of the committee Monday he was elected chairman of the general committee.

Mr. McCallum Leaves.

Mr. Daniel McCallum, for a number of years connected with the local weather bureau, and well known in the labor movement here, left last week for Wash-ington, where he goes to take up his duties in the central bureau, to which he was recently appointed.

Commissioner of Labor James B. Doherty has accepted the invitation of the committee from Norfolk and Portsmouth to preside at the exercises to be held at Piney Beach on Labor Day.

Bijou Comeny Company, when presented "The Knickerbooker Girl" in that city two weeks ago, says:

Great audiences have witnessed the performances of the Weils-Dunne-Harlan Company at the Ponce DeLeon Casino this week. In fact, the number of people bent on seeing Little Chip, Mary Marble, Tony Hart and the others, have exceeded seating accommodations, resulting in the announcement of "standing room only" to all late comers.

It is thought that the company has absolutely played its strongest and most telling hit, despite the fact that "The Knickerbocker Girl" was played at the faljou during the season. Wise stage management has set the show on a faster pace and introduced a new selection of special musical numbers, and these reasons make the bill one of powerful magnetism.

Of course it is known that the play itself is one of delightful qualities. It allows Little Chip much comedy food in the part of the eccentric Dutchman, while Mary Marble, as the wisa fittle country girl, is making herself a great deal more popular than ever before. Tony Hart and David Andrada are taking good care of their assignments, while it in evidence that Pearl Early and Will Hatter have scored well with the strong parts given them. The others who feed the story are capable.

It is the musical part of the slow that is appealing so strongly to the theatre-goers. There are specialities, duos, triog and big numbers that win ringing encores and that are talked about, and it is a fact that the closing feature is one of the most unique and novel yet introduced in a theatre. It brings every member of the organization, but a fow, in front of the house, and there is a "grand march" down an aisle that is funny.

The play will be presented every night this week, with the usual matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

May Robson has decided to follow the example of Charles Hawtrey, Jossie Mill-ward and the other stars who have, been ward and the other stars who have been enticed into vaudeville by F. F. Proctor and succumbing to the temptation of a very large salary, will make her debut at the Proctor houses early in September. She will play at two of the theatres, appearing in each twice a day The vehicle chosen by Miss Robson is a sketch dalled Cinders, by an English author, in which she will impersonate a "slavey" of the type with which she has so frequently been identified in the past. Mr. Proctor will have special scenery prepared for the little play and will make Miss Robson's debut in vaudeville one of the events of the season. In case Miss Robson's venture is successful, it is not unlikely that a long vaudeville tour will be booked for her by Mr. Proctor.

Colonel John H. Caswell, who is connected with the executive staff of Frank C Bostock, salled for Europe on the Oceanic last week. He will go direct to Paris, where he will begin negotiations on behalf of Mr. Bostock for the purpose of establishing a big open-air amusement enterprise in the French capital, founded on the lines that have made Dreamland and Luna Park so successful at Coney. Island, Fairyland will be the name of the place, and Mr. Bostock hopes to give the Parisians what they are always prise, and it is said that Mr. Bostock will have no difficulty in securing the
